

1 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Henderson.

2 DELEGATE HENDERSON: I understood the Chairman
3 to say a few days ago, when we began to discuss this 4 matter, that the committee had left this, or was leaving 5 this matter to Congress, the reason he didn't put such 6 provision in here.

7 Now there seems to be a change and now we are 8 putting the provision in. Am I correct in that? Have 9 you changed your views about it?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Gallagher.

11 DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Delegate Henderson, to be 12 perfectly frank, the Chairman of the legislative committee
13 was informed that if no provision were put in this Con-
14 stitution with respect to Congressional redistricting, that 15 there was a genuine possibility that the League of Women
16 Voters would oppose this Constitution in its entirety.

17 Since I did not seek to get that particular
18 result, I felt it incumbent that I join with the group
19 that had proposed it, and I now find myself in the lovable
20 position of having to defend^{it}/throughout. I am here and 21 I will stick with it.
